2

Special Condition # 19: The defendant shall reside in a residential reentry center (RRC) for a period of up to 180 days at the direction of the supervising officer. The defendant's participation in the programs offered by the RRC is limited to employment, education, treatment, and religious services at the direction of the supervising officer. The defendant shall abide by the rules and requirements of the facility.

Supporting Evidence: On December 23, 2016, Mr. Scott Franklin was scheduled to release from Bureau of Prisons' custody from the Federal Correctional Institute located in Sheridan, Oregon. Consistent with his conditions of supervised release as ordered by the Court, a referral for him to reside at the Spokane Residential Reentry Center (RRC) was submitted and subsequently approved beginning on December 23, 2016. Mr. Franklin had been previously directed by both his assigned Bureau of Prisons' counselor, as well as the undersigned officer, to report to this facility on December 23, 2016, and Mr. Franklin had agreed to do so. On December 23, and December 24, 2016, the undersigned officer received voice mails from Spokane RRC staff who indicated that the client had failed to report to the facility on December 23, 2016, as required. Mr. Franklin's bed date with the facility has since been rescinded.

The U.S. Probation Office respectfully recommends the Court issue a warrant for the arrest of the offender to answer the allegations contained in this petition.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.
